

Kenora Bridge Waterproofing

CPR awarded Ernst Hansch Construction Ltd. the contract to design and complete the waterproofing and protection of CPR's Kenora, ON railway bridge.

The design and installation of an EPDM waterproofing system and waterproofing protection system on two concrete approach pans was completed by Ernst Hansch Construction Ltd. in less than two days, allowing CPR to operate the tracks ahead of schedule.

Client	Canadian Pacific Railway Company
Location	Kenora, Ontario, Canada
Size	N/A
Completed	September 2013
Project Type	Bridges & Infrastructure - Rehabilitation
Services	Design-Build

