

Pipeline Suction & Discharge Manifold

Ernst Hansch Construction Ltd. was awarded the contract to design and complete the construction of suction and discharge manifolding for the TransCanada Pipeline at Compressor Station No.45, Falcon Lake, Manitoba.

Project works included excavation, de-watering, concrete bases, backfill and heating and hoarding for the piping.

Client	TransCanada Pipelines Limited
Location	Falcon Lake, Manitoba,
Size	N/A
Completed	1996
Project Type	Bridges & Infrastructure - Water & Waste
Services	Design-Bid-Build

