

Scott & Bryson Drains Timber Bridge

As the successful bidder, Ernst Hansch Construction was awarded the Manitoba Infrastructure contract to complete the Stringer Strengthening for Two Treated Timber Bridges project over the Scott and Bryson Drains on Provincial Road 248.

Utilizing vertical and horizontal fiberglass rods with epoxy adhesive to strengthen the existing treated timber bridges, this work was done without disrupting traffic flows.

Client	Manitoba Infrastructure
Location	PR 248, Manitoba
Size	N/A
Completed	March 2005
Project Type	Bridges & Infrastructure - Rehabilitation
Services	General Contractor Sustainable Solutions Specialized Construction Services

