

Shoal Lake Pumping Station

Ernst Hansch Construction was the successful bidder to complete an upgrade to the existing water supply and pumping station for the Town of Shoal Lake.

The water table height following a substantial downfall was a challenge on this project and required creative problem solving skills. This project provided a clean, safe and reliable water supply for the area residents.

Client	Town of Shoal Lake
Location	Shoal Lake, Manitoba
Size	3,000 square metres
Completed	January 2006
Project Type	Bridges & Infrastructure - Water & Waste
Services	Design-Bid-Build

